1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) was enacted on 3rd February 2000 and gives effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by the State and any other person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to which the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural requirements attached to such requests.

2. INTRODUCTION TO SA TAXI HOLDINGS (PTY) LTD

The company means any entity, the financial results of which are either wholly or partially consolidated (or are required to be wholly or partially consolidated) into the annual financial statements of SA Taxi Holdings Proprietary Limited from time to time in terms of SA Taxi Holdings Proprietary Limited’s accounting policies from time to time. The company is a juristic person incorporated as a private company in terms of the company laws of the Republic of South Africa. The Company is classified as a “private body” within the definition of Section 1 of the Act.

3. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

This manual has been prepared in accordance with Section 51 of the Act. It is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the company, by giving effect:

- to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right; and
- to actively promote a society in which the members of the public have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- commercial confidentiality;
- effective, efficient and good governance; and
- in a manner which balances the right of access with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in Chapter 2 of the Constitution.

This manual sets out to provide for the manner in which requests to the company are to be made. This manual is drafted in accordance with the generic manual made available by the information regulator.

7.2.5 Other Party Records

The Company may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to the Company. These records include but are not limited to:

- Personnel, customer or private body records which are held by another party as opposed to the records held by the Company itself; and
- Records held by the Company pertaining to other parties, including but not limited to, financial, commercial, operational and legal records, contractual records, correspondence, records provided by the other party, and records provided by third parties about contractors/suppliers.

7.3 Website

The Company's website address is www.satataxi.co.za and is accessible to anyone who has access to the Internet. The website contains various categories of information relating to the Company.

8. PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING ACCESS TO INFORMATION

8.1 Access to records held by Company

Records held by the company may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

A requestor must use the prescribed form to make a request for access to a record. A "requestor" in relation to a private body means -

- any person, including, but not limited to, a public body or an official thereof, making a request for access to a record of that private body; or
- a person acting on behalf of the person contemplated above.

8.2 Form of request

8.2.1 The requester must use Form as set out in Annexure A of this manual, to make a request for access to a record;

8.2.2 The request should be made to the Designated Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address as stated above;

8.2.3 The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient detail to enable the Designated Information Officer to identify [Section 53]:

- The record or records requested and the requester of the information;
- The form of access required;
- The postal address; fax number or e-mail address of the requester in the Republic;
- The right the requester is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the record is required for the exercise or protection of that right;
- If in addition to a written reply, the manner in which the requester wishes to be informed of the decision regarding the request made; and
- If the request is made on behalf of a person, the capacity in which the requester is making the request.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

8.3 Fees

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee. The fee that the requester must pay to a private body is R5; and
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

The requester may lodge a complaint to Information Regulator or lodge an application with the court against the tender or payment of the request fee or access fee. [Section 54(3) (b)].

- 8.3.1 The requester must pay the prescribed request fee, before any further processing can take place. When the Designated Information Officer receives the request, such officer shall by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request. [Section 54(1)]. The notice must also set out the procedure for lodging the complaint to the Information Regulator or the application [Section 54(3) (c)].
- 8.3.2 A requester, who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester, is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester must pay the prescribed required request fee.
- 8.3.3 If the search for and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangements to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed, the Designated Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion (being no more than one third) of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted. [(Section 54(2)].
- 8.3.4 If a deposit has been paid and the request for access refused, the deposit referred to above must be repaid to the requester.
- 8.3.5 The designated information officer may withhold a record until the requester has paid the applicable fees as indicated in Annexure B.
- 8.3.6 A requester, whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction, search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form [Section 54(6)]. In terms of the Act [Section 54(7)], the access fee prescribed for the purposes referred to above must
- provide for the costs of making the record, or a transcription of a record;
  - and if applicable a postal fee; and
  - the time reasonably required to search for the record and prepare the record for disclosure to the requester.

9. CONSIDERING YOUR REQUEST

- 9.1 The Company will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons to that effect [Section 56].
- 9.2 The 30 day period within which the Company is to decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if
- the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the private body concerned;
  - the request requires a search for records in, or collection thereof from, an office of the private body not situated in the same town or city as the office of the head that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;

- consultation among divisions of the Company or with another private body is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
- more than one of the circumstances contemplated in the paragraphs above exist in respect of the request making compliance with the original period not reasonably possible.

If the period is extended, the Designated Information Officer will within 30 days after the request is received notify the requester of

- The period of the extension;
- The reasons for the extension, including the provisions of this Act relied upon; and
- That the requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the extension, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging the application.

10. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main grounds for the Company to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- 10.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person [Section 63];
- 10.2 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
  - Trade secrets of that third party;
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
  - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition [Section 64];
- 10.3 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement [Section 65];
- 10.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property [Section 66];
- 10.5 Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings [Section 67];
- 10.6 The commercial activities of the Company, which may include:
  - Trade secrets of the Company;
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;
  - Information which, if it is disclosed could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
  - A computer programme which is owned by the Company, and which is protected by copyright [Section 68]; and
  - The research information of the Company or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Company, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage [Section 69];

10.7 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

11. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN THE COMPANY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

11.1 Internal Remedies

The Company does not have an internal appeals procedure. As such, the decision made by the Designated Information Officer is final. The requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal, if the request for information is refused and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Designated Information officer.

11.2 External Remedies

A requester that is dissatisfied with the Designated Information officer's refusal to disclose information may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Designated Information officer's decision to grant a request for information may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or apply to a Court for relief. For the purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the:

- Constitutional Court,
- The High Court or another Court of similar status.
